| 7  | 41  |    | The initial part of the song was a little mellow and slow. However, the beat began to pick up part way through the song, so I liked that about it. The artist has a nice voice. The music seemed to fit with the lyrics to the song. I think this artist could have potential, but not sure this song is Hit material. Overall, good job. |

| 8  | 47  |    | I like the style. It's like accoustic pop that I really am fond of but it's hard to find really good artists in that genre. Her vocals and lyrics are really great. I think she has a lot of potential. It doesn't sound as polished as a more mature artist with more resources but I actually find that charming as well.               |

| 7  | 35  |    | The song itself is very nice, the vocals are intense. The quality of the song is also pretty good but the volume needs to be dramatically increased to equal Songs at the same volume setting. The beat is a little bit slow I think for a pop song but it would do well on something like America's got Talent.                          |

| 9  | 27  |    | I really like the song. Compared to other songs from this requester, this was the one in which the vocals and instrumental matched up the best. Only complaint is the vocals are a bit soft, which can easily be fixed in post. Otherwise its a great song and I look forward to hearing it again in the future.                          |

| 8  | 32  |  | This song is beautiful. It is structured really well. Vocally, she is easy to understand but shows alot of range. The build up the song is nice and concluded with nice clear and crisp vocals that leave you wanting more. This song is a hit.                                                                                           |

| 8  | 41  |  | I like the simple yet tasteful production. Every bit adds something, and there isn't too much. The vocal is lovely. The lyrics are quite good. There isn't enough thoughtful pop in the world, so I hope many people get to hear this.                                                                                                    |

4	44		Best thing is her vocals and lyrics. The music and the production in this song were not at there best. This song would sound so much better with real drums not computer generated beats.
	age	male
7	20		It felt a little cliché/wasn't sure how I felt about the lyrics, but the quality overall is really nice, and it's composed in a really nice way. Great great vocals I think especially!
	age	female
3	43		A nice but average pop EDM ballad. HER voice is okay but totally average. The lyrics are good for the type of song. The music is cliché and boring. Chasing trends is never good.
	age	male
8	35		I like the openness of the instrumentals but I think that the song needs to incorporate more a deeper and grounded vocals to sort of draw the audience in for the performance.
	age	female
7	35		The melody of the song is very catchy and the listener instantly gets hooks on. The overall song sounds as ONE as vocals, lyrics, and music blend so well together. Good Job.
	age	female
9	23		I liked the way the song sounds like. It has a very unique feel to it. I thought that the melody was also very sweet and the singer's voice sounded perfect in this melody.
	age	female
3	37		This song was a little slow for my liking. It put me to sleep. I thought the lyrics were odd. I did not catch the message or vibe. Singer had a pretty voice.
	age	female
6	22		It is just a care free pop song. Honestly the formula here is so boring it is making me yawn. It is so predictable. They should try a different style here.
	age	male
7	35		I really liked the singer-songwriter feel to this song. I'd love to hear more from this artist and plan on checking them out immediately. Great vocals.

One thing that I really enjoyed about this song is the sunshine that the singer really brings out in the song. Her voice control is out of this world.

The song is just ok. It started out really slow and soft. The lyrics fit well with the music. I'm not sure that I understand the point of the song.

The vocals are fantastic but the underlying melody could have some work done to it. Almost reminds me of London Grammar or Adele in a slight way.

I love the music that Megan Winsor is putting out. All is composed very very well. Love the verses and the choruses. Such a well composed tune.

Definitely sounds like a sad song but I really like the singers voice no matter what she says, the drums are powerful and everything is strong.

This song has a very catchy feeling to it. It makes me want to listen to this song all the way to the end. Would recommend this song to others.

I like how flowy the song is, but I didn't like how the music was balanced relative to the vocals. I thought the song was overall clever.
