|----|-----|---|--|
| 7  | 34  |    | It has a great beat and a great driving rhythm that hits just the right amount. The vocals are smooth and silky but they complement the gritty, crunchy instrumentation very well. I found myself tapping my foot and nodding my head without even realizing it. It's the kind of song that I'd expect to be belting out of a jukebox in a dive bar somewhere. |

| 3  | 46  |    | Very boring song with plain vanilla lyrics. The singer almost put me to sleep. This is a slow pop genre that I find boring. Noting particularly interesting about the singer or the tune. This is typical background music you hear shopping in Walgreens. You hear it but it does nothing for you.  |
|    | age | male  |  |
| 6  | 32  |    | Her vocals are stellar. However, her words weren't very clear outside of "lose my mind." I felt like I spent way too much time trying to decipher what she was saying. I like songs that have a clear message. I still don't know what the song was about after listening to it.   |

| 8  | 22  |    | It sounded like something I would just come across in a playlist of indie songs. The lyrics were great, the vocals sounded beautiful. The rhythmic structure was different (in a good way) than the stereotypical indie acoustic song.   |
|    | age | male  |  |
| 8  | 41  |  | Excellent recording. I like the bridge quite a lot. The singer is pleasant to listen to and has a strong personality. The tune itself is quite catchy and can work as just guitar and vocal. Cool guitar sounds.   |
|    | age | male  |  |
| 7  | 32  |  | This was a great song, she reminds me so much of Adele. The lyrics were great and I could really relate with them and her voice was so soothing and strong, I didnt hear any imperfections in the vocals either.   |
|    | age | female  |  |
| 6  | 41  |  | I wouldn't mind hearing it again after it's been properly mastered. The sound quality is pretty bad. It's hard for me to really try to enjoy it in it's current state. It sounds like it has potential though.   |
|    | age | male  |  |
| 7  | 24  |  | Out of the entire song itself the vocalist's voice is a beautiful addition to it. The instrumentals are phenomenal they add quite well with her. Overall, it's a quality song that as a whole is fantastic.  |
|    | age | male  |  |
| 10 | 38  |  | Outstanding track. Her voice is just amazing. Sultry and rich, full of emotion. Music is great, the guitar work is fantastic. Wish the song was a little longer, but other than that, it is just great.  |

7	29		Sexy and sultry singer who mixes her voice with a moderate paced song that compliments it well and sucks you in - definitely the perfect song for a coffee shop or for a chill atmosphere with friends.
	age	male
5	23		The overall song is nice, and I did really like the temp and the feel of the song. It has a strange melody that catches a person's attention right away. It was just a bit too soft for me though.
	age	female
5	22		Its not bad, but its not good either. It is literally definition of average. It has no character, nothing to stand out among the rest. It is honestly crazy how dull and average it sounds.
	age	male
7	20		This is one of the best songs I've heard from doing these reviews! It might get slightly repetitive by the end, but it's very nicely put together and great quality, in my opinion.
	age	female
6	44		She is a really talented. Love her vocals and her lyrics are really strong as well. Thought the music fit the lyrics and vocals nicely the song had a good overall sound as well.
	age	male
8	47		This is a well written song that should see some radio play. Nice songwriting and a great mix. I can hear everything clearly. The singer does a great job and fits the song well.
	age	male
8	42		I enjoyed the mellow and laid back sound of this song and it made me feel pretty good listening to it. It was catchy and also had a good vibe. This would be a good radio song.
	age	female
8	37		I like the singer's voice. It is sweet and soothing to the ear. The lyrics matched her voice and the beat. This was a calming song, but was upbeat enough to keep me intrigued.
	age	female
1	43		A boring cluesy pop torch song. The music is boring and cliché. The lyrics are totally forgettable. Her voice is okay but not fitting for the song. The lyrics feel forced.

The voice of the female vocalist is very listenable. She carries the song very very well. Sure to be a hit. Music and lyrics adequately supports the overall song.

I really like the simplicity of the song, the drums kick in and the bass supports the singer, and she has a great voice, everything is professional and clean.

I didn't like how light and whispery she is on this track. Doesn't work very well. No emotion to it. Just light and flowery nonsense. Not a good song at all.

This song title says it all: I could lose myself in the tone, melody, and lyrics. I definitely love the vocals and how it all comes together in harmony,.

I love the way she sounds on this one. She sounds so much like Sarah McLachlan. Such a damn good voice on her. Top production here.
